Structure of DVD discs

Depending on the material on the disc (a movie, video clips, a drama series, etc.), these discs may have one or more Titles, and each Title may have one or more Chapters. To make access easy and convenient, your player lets you move between Titles and between Chapters.

ABOUT AUDIO CD

Structure of Audio CD

Audio CDs contain music tracks only.

You can play them in conventional style through a stereo system, using the keys on the remote control and/or front panel.

ABOUT MP3

MP3 is the compressed music file in MPEG1, Audio Layer 3 format.

MP3 playback

- This player can play MP3 discs recorded in ISO9660 format.
- The player plays the files with '.mp3' extension only.
- The maximum file number in a disc is 999. (Including the number of folders.)
- The maximum folder layer number is 8.
- When playing a MP3 disc, it may take more than 30 seconds depending on the number of files and folder layer structure.
- When playing MP3 files, the << buttons on the player and on the remote do not work.

COMPACT DISCS

The glossy side shining like a rainbow is the front side of the disc, and the side on which the label is printed is the back.

Unlike conventional turntables for playing analog discs, the DV110 reads the information recorded on the disc from underneath without contacting it using a beam of laser light. Therefore, the performance of a compact disc will not degrade like conventional analog records.

Handle discs carefully so as not to damage or scratch the front side.

To protect the disc, avoid placing it in the following locations:

- In direct sunlight or near a source of heat like a heater.
- In a place which is damp or dirty.
- In a place which could be exposed to rain, such as near a window.

Always keep the disc surface clean.

Up to six billion data units are recorded on the front side of the disc. When cleaning the disc surface, always be sure to use a special compact disc cleaner and wipe as shown below.

- Do not use conventional record cleaner for analog records, as this will adversely affect the disc surface.
Store discs properly by placing them in their disc cases.
- Do not attach a piece of paper or sticker on the label side of disc. When a disc has a piece of plastic tape or rental DVD/CD label with paste protruded from the edge or when a disc has a trace of such a sticky object, do not attempt to play the disc. If such a disc is played on the DVD player, impossibility of taking out the disc or other malfunction may result.

Do not attempt to play a disc with a special shape such as a heart-shaped disc or octagonal disc. Otherwise the equipment malfunction may result.

Do not expose the DVD player, batteries or discs to humidity, rain, sand or excessive heat (caused by heating equipment or direct sunlight).

If the DVD player cannot read discs correctly use a commonly available cleaning disc to clean the lens before taking the DVD player to be repaired. Other cleaning methods may destroy the lens. Always keep the tray closed to avoid dust on the lens.

The lenses may cloud over when the DVD player is suddenly moved from cold to warm surroundings. It is not possible to play a disc then. Leave the DVD player in a warm environment until the moisture evaporates.
